Dedication

We would like to dedicate this CENTRALIAN to the 1960 graduating class of Sargent Central who were the pioneers for the succeeding classes, and to the seniors of 1963, the first class to have completed their four years in this school.

We earnestly hope in years to come, others will try as we have tried, to keep the pathway as straight and challenging as those before them.

CLASS HISTORY

Sargent Central opened its doors for the first time in September 1959. With this opening came forty-six green freshmen.

With Miss Dyste as advisor we elected Paul Tuchscher, president; Don Isensee, vice president; Kathy Klinkhammer, secretary; and Bill Urie, treasurer, Sharon Nelson and Fred Skoglund as Student Council members and Eleanor Betting as one of the B squad cheerleaders.

We as sophomores sponsored the first annual Snowball at Central. Princess Kathy Klinkhammer and Prince Bill Urie were representatives of our class.

The year's officers were Fern Thompson, president; Bill Urie, vice president; Kip Cooper, secretary; and Lorene Templer, treasurer. Mr. Klubben was our advisor. Eleanor Betting and Paul Tuchscher were elected to the Student Council. Representing our class as B squad cheerleaders were Eleanor Betting, Nancy Huffman, and Fern Thompson. Losing three members reduced the enrollment to forty-three.

The highlights of our junior year were the class play and the junior-senior prom. "Brother Goose", a three-act-comedy was presented under the direction of Mrs. Fust with a cast of eleven. The theme of the prom was Island in the Sun. Projects to raise money for the prom brought in a sum of $1155.

Snowball candidates were Prince Fred Skoglund and Princess Sharon Nelson.

Kip Cooper, Fred Skoglund, Geraldine Dahl, and Paul Tuchscher were elected as officers and our class advisor was Mrs. Fust. Student Council members were Paul Tuchscher and Susan Carpenter.

Now, in the fall of 1962, thirty-eight experienced students began their last year at Central. This year's activities included the prom and a class play entitled "The Night of January 16", under the direction of Mrs. Parrow. The Snowball candidates were Ricky Waldera and Louise Pearson.

Sharon Nelson was elected 1962 Homecoming queen, with Nancy Huffman as one of her attendants. Officers were Brent Grothe, Charles Even, Nancy Huffman, and Sharon Nelson. Representing our class on the Student Council were Susan Carpenter and Don Isensee. Mrs. Parrow was our advisor. Sharon Nelson, Nancy Huffman, and Fern Thompson were elected A squad cheerleaders.

CLASS WILL

I, Gordon Lamb, will my black Ford to Jim Lamb.
I, Bonnie Martin, will my small feet to Jim Oleson.
I, Fred Skoglund, will my toothpicks to Pat Mahrer.
I, Bill Urie, hereby will my hairy legs to Bob Zollar.
I, Louise Pearson, will my extra height to Jim Oleson.
I, Lorene Templer, will my blond hair to Diane Evenson.
I, Carol Thornberg, will my good nature to Mrs. Parrow.
I, Geraldine Dahl, will my dimples to Dee Ann Abrahamson.
I, Kathy Crandall, will my after-beats in band to Carl Blumhoff.
I, Marlys Brezicka, will my red hair rinse capsules to Linda Huffman.
I, Ruth Christensen, will my dirty white tennis shoes to Diane Evenson.
I, Paul Tuchscher, will my shyness to Dick Zollar. Come on Dick, brave up.
I, Darrell Albro, hereby will my ability to miss school to Clifford Nelson.
I, Clifford Cooper, do hereby will my football position to Jerome Josewski.
I, Gerald Maczkowicz, will my shorthand skill to Janet Bakkegard. She needs it.
I, Sharon Nelson, will my crown to all future Sargent Central homecoming queens.
I, Richard Evanson, will my physics lab book to anyone with the ability to read it.
I, Richard Fust, being of sound mind and body hereby will my big mouth to Jack Gomarko.
I, Fern Thompson, will my knack at being good to Walter Webb. Do you suppose he could?
I, Ricky Waldera, being of sound mind and body will my quiet personality to Walter Webb.
I, Carole Bentson, will my ability to be quiet to Donna Zirnhelt, the junior class riot.
I, Marvin Erickson, will my ability to get passing grades without working to Pat Mahrer.
I, Brent Grothe, will my red Ford to Walter Webb, so he won't lose so much weight walking.
I, Arnold Evenson, do hereby will five of my best suits in choice of color to Dean Colbert.
I, Eleanor Betting, will my ability to get into trouble and always get caught to Dick Zollar.
I, Susan Carpenter, will my camera to anyone who can get a good-looking picture of Mr. Wohler.
I, Karen Hayen, do will to Diane Bishoff my paino skills. Now use them and play those trills.
I, Loretta Nelson, will to Patty Kubis the ability to know how many calories I eat in one day.
I, Bill Kosbab, will my big lungs to Cabot Thunem so everyone can hear him while playing solos.
I, Lorinda Dietz, do will my sticky fingers to all future annual editors. Use them with skill.
I, Phyllis Hoefs, will my P.O.D. book to Gail Saunders. I hope she gets more out of it than I did.
I, Marie Banish, will my baton twirling ability to any underclassman with the patience to practice.
I, Don Isensee, will my charm and good looks to Chuck Haring, who I am sure will gladly accept them.

Marvin,
Good luck to you in the future. I'll always remember our dear Phipis class. The experiment days were fun, though. I think we should call it our mercury class. Hope you find happiness in whatever you do.
